

THE TIMES

WEST MIAMI AND FLAGAMI NEWS

Formal Dedication Planned For West Miami Junior High

West Miami Junior High School will be formally dedicated Sunday, January 9th at 3 p.m. The new school was open in September, 1954. Dedication and presentation of the key will be made by James E. Garland, Director, School House Planning and W. R. Thomas, Superintendent of Schools in Dade County. The presentation will be made to Dr. Lee A. Aber, principal of the Junior High School.

Mrs. W. O. Brown, Jr. president of the PTA and Mrs. Harriet Mertz, president of the faculty, will also participate in the ceremony together with representatives of the 7th, 8th and 9th grades.

The invocation will be delivered by Rev. Roy Reynolds, pastor of the Flagami Baptist Church and Rabbi Alfred Waxman, of the West Miami Jewish Center, will give the benediction.

Yvonne Wood, vice-president of the student council will lead the audience in the pledge of allegiance while Charles McCoy will lead in the singing of the national anthem.

After the address of welcome is delivered by Dr. Aber, greetings will be extended by Mrs. W. O. Brown, Jr., president PTA and Wayne Batten, president of the Student council.

The 7th grade chorus will sing Brahe's "Bless this School" and Joe Hall, associate superintendent of schools, will introduce the honored guests.

The Junior High Schools band and choir will also take part in the ceremonies.

Open House and refreshments will follow the dedication ceremony.